with keeping a house of ill fame at 17
Atlantic street. Mrs. Staplins was arrested by Officer James C. Sullivan on a warrant issued by Prosecuting Attorney Daniel M. Cronin. The warrant was issued by the prosecutor following complaints made to him about the place.

The arrest came as a surprise and created considerable of a sensation in New London's tenderloin. All has been quiet there since the crusade of a few years ago, when the house of ill fame were closed.

When Officer Sullivan went to the house to serve the warrant Mrs. Staplins was the only person there. She stoutly denied her guilt and was indignant because the warrant had been issued for her.

SUPERIOR COURT PROBATIONER. Mrs. Daley Phillips, Despondent Af-ter Drinking, Tried to Drewn Her-

Mrs. Daisy Phillips, a probatione from the superior court, attempted suicide at New London Sunday morn-ing, jumping into the water from a wharf at the corner of Smith and ing, jumping into the water from a wharf at the corner of Smith and Hamilton streets. She was pulled from the water by an Italian living near by and taken to the police station where she was held on the charge of intoxication.

Mrs. Phillips was arrested several weeks ago, charged with assault with intent to kill her husband William Phillips, after Phillips had been found by the police in the street with his face slashed and bleeding. She was arraigned at the May criminal term of the superior court, semtenced to a year in jail and then placed in charge of Probation Officer Richard W. Mansfield.

For some time her conduct was

W. Mansfield.

For some time her conduct was good, but last week she started drinking and Sunday morning, despondent and tired of life, she decided to throw herself overboard. She was al-lowed to go again Monday morning under probation.

TO PEOPLE WHO ARE LOSING WEIGHT

Any unnatural loss of flesh and weight, even though gradual, should be regarded with alarm. Unless the result of actual illness, it is a certain indication that the flesh and strength-giving elements in your food are passing out of your body as waste instead of going to the blood where they belong. You can quickly correct this condition and win back from ten to thirty pounds of healthy stay there fat by eating a little Sargol with your meals.
